2020 Annual Awards Application Form Our Packaging Future Award for Packaging Sustainability Education

This year's APCO Awards will include several new categories designed to showcase APCO Members who have implemented an initiative within their organisation that supports progress toward the 2020 National Packaging Targets. The Our Packaging Future Awards are open to all Covenant Signatory and Brand Owner Members.

Has your organisation implemented an initiative between 2018 - 2020, that supports the strategies of Our Packaging Future?

To be considered for this Award, please complete the below application form and return to events@packagingcovenant.org.au by Friday, 2 October 2020.

Applications will be reviewed by the APCO team and successful applicants will be notified by 4 November 2020. Please be available for the online Annual Awards on 18 November 2020 at 3pm AEST. Finalists will be registered separately.

For further information, please do not hesitate to contact the APCO Member Services team via events@packagingcovenant.org.au or on 02 8318 3720.

Process

- To nominate your organisation for this Award, please: 1. Download the application form 2. Submit the application form along with evidence 3. Submit your organisation's logo in .jpeg or .png 4. Read and sign the 2020 APCO Awards Declaration 5. Return all of the above to events@packagingcovenant.org.au by Friday 2 October 2020

Our Packaging Future Award for Packaging Sustainability Education For this Award, APCO is looking for education campaigns on packaging sustainability, setup by our Member organisations. This could include such things as marketing campaigns for the Australian Recycling Label, running workshops or webinars on packaging sustainability etc. These programs can be internal within your organisation, or external with customers and suppliers. If your organisation has run an education campaign between 2018 - 2020, please provide details below:

- 1. What was the purpose of your education campaign? 2. Who was the audience for the campaign? 3. If available, how many people did the campaign reach? 4. What were the outcomes and/or benefits of the campaign?

There have been reports of fake websites offering scholarships and visas to international students. Please be advised that Australia Awards Scholarships does not engage any agents or individuals to process scholarship applications. Application must be completed and submitted through the Online Australia Awards Scholarships Information System: Opening date: 1 February 2022 Closing date: 29 April 2022 Applications and/or supporting documents received after the closing date will not be considered. Applications must be submitted online at the OASIS website Applicants must read the OASIS Intake 2023 User Guide for Applicants before commencing their application. There is no fee to submit a scholarship application. All applicant information materials and forms are provided free of charge. You must register for your own unique OASIS log-in and password. Do not submit your application using another person's log-in and password. We recommend using a non-work email address, such as Gmail or Hotmail. Work emails may have firewalls that block outside addresses and at times can be offline. Consider using a reliable email account for your scholarship application. It is recommended OASIS be accessed using Google Chrome or Firefox browsers. You do not need to start, finish and submit your application all at once. You can complete your application over a period of time and save it as you go. Each page will begin with Help Text, which explains how to complete the application page. If you do not complete the mandatory fields on the application page, an error message will appear in red. The answer boxes on each application page have character limits. Characters are letters, spaces and punctuation marks. If you exceed the character limit, an error will appear and your response might not save until you reduce the number of characters. A checklist is shown in OASIS on the left hand side of the webpage. A tick symbol indicates that the application section has been completed. The (x) symbol indicates the section is incomplete. All attachments must be 2MB or less. Type into your Google Chrome, Safari or Firefox browser Click Logon / Register New Account Register with your email, name (as per ID document/ passport), date of birth and contact number A temporary password will then be sent to your email address Log in with the temporary password provided and follow the instructions to set a new password You now have access to the application system Helpful tip An asterisk (*) symbol is shown next to mandatory questions, which you must complete. If you leave a mandatory question blank, the system will not let you submit your application. You must complete all mandatory questions Applicant must read and research about their sectoral issues and development needs and appropriate courses in Australia before preparing their application. Application statements must be clear, concise and focused. The statements must demonstrate a clear understanding of the scholarship objectives and PNG development agenda. Personal, study and national plans should align together: applicants need to show relationship between personal, career goals and PNG development needs. Applicant's course preferences must illustrate relevance to applicant's academic background and current employment, career plans and human resource and development needs of their sector and PNG. Referee reports should provide adequate information on the applicant's skills and knowledge and include references to applicant's study and reintegration plans. The reintegration plan must clearly outline how the new skills and knowledge the applicant will gain in Australia will contribute towards development in PNG and proposed improved policy and practice in current sector or agency. Ensure all required documents are submitted. Any missing document will make the application non-compliant and ineligible for further assessment. Applicants are advised to consult with AAPNG Scholarship Team in preparing for their application. If possible, applications must be submitted before the deadline to avoid any technical issues with the online application system. The system slows down on the last day of application because of high number of users. [ ] I have answered all mandatory questions on OASIS. For PhD candidates: Evidence (e-mail or letter communication) that a potential supervisor has granted in-principle support for the research topic. All applications submitted for the Australia Awards Scholarship are considered on merit where every applicant is given equal opportunities. The scholarship selection process will be administered by Program Areas in various countries or regions. Therefore, the process varies according to the region/country. Factors affecting Australia Awards Scholarships Academic competence personal and professional qualities capability to influence the home country's development challenges Based on these factors and many others, each participating country produces a list of shortlisted candidates. The number of students depends on the Australia Awards Scholarships available to the region. Shortlisted students are interviewed and the selection process may include other activities like group participation sessions to measure the suitability of applicants. After that, each participating country produces a list of candidates, with their first preference course and institution. Placement requests are reviewed by the Australian universities and based on the merit, they process a placement offer to applicants fulfilling the admission eligibility criteria. This includes obtaining an Australian student visa as well. Australia Awards Scholarship decisions are announced/informed by August 1. Australia Awards scholarship recipients will be required to sign a contract with the Commonwealth of Australia agreeing to comply with the scholarship's conditions. By signing the contract, the applicant will be agreeing to the following conditions: Scholars will have to leave Australia for at least two years after completing the term of their scholarship. Failing to do so, will result in the repayment of the scholarship's total accrued cost. Recipients will have to start the formal study in the year for which it is awarded unless the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) has agreed to delay the beginning of the scholarship until it is satisfied that the recipient is ready to start. Awardees will have to take part in the pre-departure briefing organized by the Program Area and attend the compulsory Introductory Academic Program arranged by the institution when they reach Australia. Scholars must undertake only the course for which the scholarship is awarded, adhere to the institution's rules, sit examinations, submit all the required assessment items for the course and finish their course by the end date of the scholarship. Awardees must follow Australian laws and act in a way that will not harm the reputation of DFAT. Overall, the Australia Awards Scholarship is an excellent opportunity for students belonging to countries like India, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, etc. They get to study in Australia at a minimal cost. For any further queries, students and awardees are advised to contact the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade.
